Private Boyce is stationed near Verdun and is uncertain as to his arrival home.

The last of a series of get-togethers, held by the Men's club of the Presbyterian church during the winter and spring months, was held last evening and was enjoyed by a goodly number, including many of the ladies of the church, who were guests. A program that brought forth encores figured in the bulk of the entertainment. It included vocal selections by Harry Clark and Miss Alice Walker, a reading by Mrs. J. L. Ackley, and piano solos by Miss Hazel Mackay and William Morrison. Miss Bessie Smith acted acceptably as accompanist. Rev. D. D. Wagner, of Delmar, Iowa, who is supplying the pulpit, gave some very interesting sidelights on what the state of Iowa has been doing in and since the war, the latest accomplishment being the first state in the Victory loan campaign to report being "over the top." Refreshments of ice cream, cake and wafers were later served in the vestry by members of the club, and a social time followed.

Bitter or Better Baking

A letter makes a great difference in a word. A word makes a great difference in baking powders.

If the little word "alum" appears on the label it may mean bitter baking.

If the word ROYAL stands out bold and strong, it surely means BETTER baking.

This is only one reason why it pays to use
